Patriotic prayer rally to be held Sunday at Christman Park

A Patriotic Prayer Rally will be held for all area Christians at Christman Park in Rossville on Sunday, June 26 at 4 p.m. People from different churches will supply music and pray for our nation and local communities at this especially crucial time.

Music will be supplied by Alvin Church of God's worship team, and Brandon Ford of Danville. Those participating are Pastor Danny Hunt of Alvin, Pastor Danny Mikel of Rossville, Pastor Stan Jackowski of Hoopeston, Pastor Jay Sorrel of Danville, and Larry Johnson of East Lynn.

Also participating are Jim Weston, Wendy Zimmerman, Scott Covington, Jon and Melody Lockhart and Jerry and Linda Jones.

The theme for the event is II Chronicles 7:14. "If My people, who are called by My name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

The public is encouraged to attend this prayer rally and join with prayers of support for our nation. The rally will be in the pavilion, and there is a beautiful playground for the kids in the park. There is seating in the pavilion.

Jerry and Linda Jones and friends are sponsoring the event. Call 217-495-0023 for information.

From the Blotter

Sandy L. Zarate, 35, of Hoopeston, was arrested at 3:07 p.m. Thursday at Tedd's beverage Shop, 101 W. Main.

Wanted on an Iroquois County warrant, she was processed at the police station, then transported to Iroquois County Jail by an Iroquois deputy.

Eric S. Stevens, 49, of Hoopeston, was arrested after police were called at 8:16 p.m. Thursday for a disturbance at The Pump, 1023 W. Main.

Stevens was located and taken to the police station for processing. He was charged with assault and disorderly conduct and released on notices to appear in Hoopeston City Court.

No tickets or injuries were reported in an accident at 10:31 p.m. Thursday in the 800 block of East Elm.

Police said Caden Blackburn, 17, of Cissna Park, backed a 2019 Chevrolet Equinox from a driveway into a 2005 Ford F-150, driven by Eric Savage, 16, of Hoopeston.

Marci J. Hartman, 44, of Hoopeston, was arrested after police were called at 6:29 a.m. to Firestone Apartments, 215 S. Dixie Hwy. A 40-year-old Hoopeston man alleged Hartman was being abusive and hitting him.

Hartman was charged with domestic battery and taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville to await arraignment.

Christian M. Smith, 36, of Wellington, was arrested by Iroquois County Sheriff's Police on June 11. He was charged with criminal trespass to a residence and was taken to the Iroquois County Jail, where he was released on the required bond.

Fire Calls

Hoopeston Fire Department was called at 6:30 a.m. Thursday to a structure fire in the 600 block of West Elm. Wellington, Rossville, and Rankin East Lynn were called for mutual aid.

No injuries were reported and no report on damages was made.
