From the Blotter

No tickets or injuries were reported in an accident at 6:40 p.m. Friday in the 700 block of West Elm.

Police said Karen Geiken, 66, of Cissna Park, pulled from a parking lot and began traveling westbound in a 2021 Buick Enclave, when an eastbound 2020 Chevrolet Equinox, driven by Timothy lane, 61, of Hoopeston, crossed into Geiken's lane, striking her vehicle.

Larry Dunavan, 75, of Rossville, was ticketed for driving under the influence after an accident at 9:09 p.m. Friday at Subway, 901 S. Dixie Hwy.

Police said Dunavan, n a 2020 Ford Ranger, turned into the Subway parking lot and struck the east-facing side of the building, driving between the front of the building and the concrete barriers in front of the door.

He was released on a notice to appear in Vermilion County Traffic Court. No injuries were reported.

Sherard T. Jones, 46, of Hoopeston, was arrested after officers reported seeing him not stop at a stop sign.

The arrest happened at 3:21 p.m. Saturday after police said Jones failed to stop at South Fourth St. and Maple. He was charged with disobeying a traffic control device and driving while license suspended and released on a notice to appear in Vermilion County Traffic Court.

No tickets or injuries were reported in an accident at 12:13 p.m. Sunday in the 100 block of East Main.

Police said Cesar Montoya, 24, of Danville, was eastbound on Main St. in a 2008 Pontiac G8, when he crossed the center line to park on the north side of the street. At the same time, Irene Colunga, 51, of Hoopeston, backed a 2019 Ford Fusion from a parking spot, striking Montoya's vehicle.

Joseph D. Hart, 37, of Hoopeston, was arrested after police made contact with him at 6:30 p.m. Sunday in the 400 block of South Second Ave. Wanted on a Vermilion County warrant, he was taken to the police station where he was processed and later taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville.

Iroquois County Sheriff's Department reported that Dylan L. Jones, 21, of Milford, turned himself in at the Iroquois County Jail Friday, to begin serving a sentence for driving under the influence.

ICSD investigated a single-vehicle accident Friday on County Rd. 3000 E, approximately one quarter mile north of County Rd. 200 E.

According to police reports, Bryce A. Dyszkewicz, 26, of Hoopeston was southbound on 3000 E. when he lost control on the gravel and drifted towards the east shoulder. He then overcorrected, crossing back over the road and entered the west ditch.

The vehicle, belonging to Aquality Solutions, Hoopeston, overturned on its side and sustained more than $1,500 in damage.

Dyszkewicz was reportedly uninjured. No tickets were issued.

Wellington EMS also responded to the scene.

HPL event to test 'one person's trash is another person's treasure'

It will be fun for all ages at Hoopeston Public Library on Thursday, July 14, at 1 p.m. when summer activities continue with "The Great Garbage Build-Off." Families are invited to attend this free event.

Library staff have been collecting recyclable "garbage" for about a month now and the lower level meeting room will be filled with a mountain of trash. Kids, teens and adults will work in teams of 3-5 people to construct works of art or practical devices from paper, cardboard, plastic and other (clean) garbage.

Prizes will be given for the most artistic, most useful and also the tallest structure. Participants can take their creations home, or the library will responsibly recycle them.

Resident reminders

- Hoopeston residents are reminded that golf carts and other such vehicles are not to be driven on the grassy areas in city parks. They may only be driven on dedicated city streets and alleys. Violators may be ticketed.
- Residents are asked to not put grease down sinks or toilets as it causes blockages in city sewers. Residents are also asked not to flush so-called flushable wipes down the toilet. These do not break down and also create blockages.
- Residents are asked to refrain from mowing grass into city streets. Those who do so may be issued a notice to appear in Hoopeston City Court.
