Briefly

Great Garbage Build-Off

Hoopeston Public Library is inviting families to attend the Great Garbage Build-Off starting at 1 p.m. Thursday.

The free event is part of the library's summer activities in which recyclables which have been collected will be used by participants to construct works of art or practical devices from the mountain of paper, cardboard, plastic and other (clean) garbage.

Prizes will be awarded for most artistic, most useful and tallest structures. Participants may take their creations home or the library will responsibly recycle them.

For more information, call (217) 283-6711 or stop by 110 N. Fourth St.
