Community festival

As Evalynn Minard, two, exams a bubble on her finger, brother Samuel, three, enjoys the bubble machine Saturday at the Community Outreach Festival at New Beginnings Church in downtown Hoopeston. The children and their parents, Rachel Minard and Jonathan Goodrum, were among many area residents who attended the event. Right, Susan Goble, a church member, does a flag performance to music at the festival, which also featured popcorn, baked goods and ice cream. Other businesses participating in the festival were Pizza King and Robinson Chiropractic.
