HAHS volleyball team has busy July in preparation for new season, assistant coach needed

By BRAD JONES
HAHS Head Volleyball Coach

Hoopeston Area High School volleyball team just completed a very busy July of contact days in preparation for the beginning of fall practice on August 8. Summer workout actually began on June 29 with their appearance in the Mahomet-Seymour High School summer league. Over the next four Wednesdays they competed against some of the top area high school teams finishing with a record of 4-4.

After the 4th of July holiday, the team began a three day camp with All-American Camps that featured coaching from two former collegiate and current professional volleyball players covering all aspects of the game. That week ended with an entry into the Parkland College varsity tournament, where Hoopeston Area finished sixth out of 12 teams.

The next week began with our entry in the GCMS summer league, where, over four different nights, Hoopeston finished with a 6-2 record, good for third out of eight teams.

We wrapped up summer contact days with the Parkland College JV tournament, where the team ended up finishing 3rd out of the 8 teams entered.

It has been a very busy and rewarding July, with improvements noted both on the court and in the weight room, where new assistant coach Allison Mann has instituted a training program that is already producing results and will be continued throughout the season.

The team is also searching for an assistant coach for our freshman team. As of now, this is a volunteer position, but if we have enough freshmen players to play our full schedule, this will become a paid position.

If you or someone you know has any interest, you may contact head coach Brad Jones (jonesbp@hoopeston.k12.il.us) or athletic director Nate Burkowski (burkowna@hoopeston.k12.il.us). We are looking forward to a great season!
