Sports

Soccer

Hoopeston Area Cornjerker Soccer ended September by traveling to take on Danville Schlarman in a VVC match.

The Cornjerkers scored on a free kick by Talan Nelson-Gredy. Schlarman tied the game on a goal by Keison People that assisted by Aiden Perez. Cornjerkers made it 2-1 when Mason Rush had a great throw-in and Owen Root was able to out jump everyone for a headshot. The Cornjerkers increased their lead when Harrison Woods led Nelson-Gredy for the goal. Cornjerkers once again scored before half on a throw-in by Preston VanDeVeer and this time Gavin Montez used his head to score.

Eight minutes into the second half Root scored from Nelson-Gredy on a corner kick to make the game 5-1. Later in the half Nelson-Gredy scored again with the assist from Gabe Joneikis.

Schlarman was able to score with 52 seconds left on a goal from Aiden Perez with the assist to Damaine Hinds for the final score 6-2.

On October 4, the team traveled to Rossville to face Bismarck-Henning Rossville Alvin and the game was of two halves.

The Blue Devils jumped out to a 1-0 lead less than two minutes into the game when Evan Cole was able to get a steal and find the back of the net. Logan Hall made the score 2-0 with Cole on the assist.

Second half, freshman Brayden Walder stepped in at goal so the Cornjerkers could get Owen Root on the field. Walder saved all four shots in his varsity win.

Gredy-Nelson cut the deficit in half by scoring from Root. A few minutes later, Gredy-Nelson tied up the game with an unassisted goal.

The Cornjerkers took the lead less than five minutes left in the game when Root was able to set up Harrison Woods to put the Cornjerkers up 3-2 for the final score.

Root had two saves in the first half and also had one penalty kick save in the first half.
