HA board to hold public hearing on $1.8 million working cash bond issue on November 17

Hoopeston Area School Board will hold a public hearing next week on a proposal to issue $1.9 million in self-funded bonds for the district working cash fund.

The hearing will be held at 6 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 19, in the high school library, prior to the board's regular meeting. A vote is expected at the December 15 meeting.

The board has created a working list of projects for the funds, if the measure is approved, said Supt. Robert Richardson. That list includes:

- Relocating electrical service at the high and middle schools, which will require coordination between an electrical contractor and Ameren. The project has a projected cost of $190,000.
- Parking lot repair and expansion, estimated at $750,000.

- Refinishing the middle school gym floor and new bleachers. Quotes the district received are $50,000 for the floor and $175,000 for bleachers.

- $250,000 to replace the John Greer boiler with a newer, more efficient one.

Officials are researching pricing for other projects on the

Ready to vote

Election judge Susan Comstock listens and an unidentified voter checks in for Tuesday's local voting at St. Anthony Parish Hall. Grant 1,2, and 4 had an average of 48.54 percent voter turnout for Tuesday's general election, compared to 54.7 in Vermilion County.

list, including:

- Cameras on all outside entry doors on all school buildings.
- Possible auditorium upgrades of lighting and sound systems
- High school gym floor repair. Multiple repairs will need to be done before the floor is replaced, including electrical service rerouted, the gym wall tuck pointed, Richardson said.
- A building on the west side of the athletic complex to house concessions and restrooms for multiple athletic seasons.

The bond issue is expected to add 34 cents per $100 assessed valuation to property taxes, Richardson said.
