From the Blotter

Deputies from Iroquois and Vermilion counties were involved in the arrested of a Potomac man Friday.

According to an Iroquois County Sheriff's Department report, deputies tried to stop a southbound vehicle on Rt. 49, just north of Cissna Park. The vehicle failed to stop and led ICSD deputies on a pursuit to the south county line east of Hoopeston, where Vermilion County deputies used spike sticks, effectively disabling the vehicle.

The driver fled on foot but was placed into custody after a short foot pursuit.

Cory D. Durflinger, 39, was arrested on preliminary charges of aggravated fleeing or attempting to elude a peace officer, driving while license revoked and several other traffic offenses, according to the report. He was also wanted on a Ford County warrant for failure to appear on a petition to revoke probation.

Durflinger was taken to the Iroquois County Jail, where he remained in lieu of bond.

On Friday, ICSD deputies transported Benjamin A. Hartman, of Rankin, from Vermilion County to the Iroquois County Jail. Wanted on an Iroquois County warrant for failure to appear on an original charge of theft under $500, he remained in jail in lieu of bond.
