Hoopeston eatery to provide free breakfasts Easter Sunday

A Hoopeston restaurant is providing free breakfasts for residents on Easter Sunday.

From 9 a.m.-11 a.m. Sunday, 112 Wine & Coffee Shoppe will have free to-go breakfasts available.

The breakfasts include biscuits and gravy, scrambled eggs, a donut, and fruit cup. Residents may pick up their breakfasts at 112 E. Main St.

This is 112's third year in business and the third year they have provided the free breakfast.

Residents do not even have to get out of their vehicles to get a breakfast - just pull up and an employee will bring the breakfast to the vehicle.

Briefly

Road closing

Hoopeston officials are advising residents that demolition of the former Bzzz Bar will be happening in the near future. The intersection of East Main and North Market will be closed periodically over the next several weeks.

Please avoid the area, if possible.

Alley cleanup

Hoopeston alley cleanup will begin Monday, April 17, weather permitting. Cleanup is for yard waste and tree limbs only. Piles that contain plastic, concrete or other materials will not be picked up.

For those who have no alley, yard debris may be placed at curbside. Residents are asked not to place the yard waste in the gutter.

Retirement open house

An open house for retiring Hoopeston Chamber of Commerce President Valarie Hinkle will be held from 2-5 p.m. Wednesday, April 5, at Hoopeston Multi Agency, 206 S. First Ave., Hoopeston. Everyone is invited to come wish her well on her retirement.
