There's More to the Story during National Library Week

Hoopeton Public Library will celebrate National Library Week April 23-29. This year's theme is "There's More to the Story."

In honor of the event, every patron, ages 13 and older, who visits HPL between April 24-29, is invited to enter the library's National Library Week drawing. Library staff will be giving away some fun goodies all week long and one patron will win the grand prize of an Amazon Fire tablet.

Come in for a program a craft, sign up for a library card, bring the kids, get help with a tech question, just to say hello or, yes, even to check out a library book! Every time you visit, you get another chance to win.

Enter at the main desk. Drawing will be held Monday, May 1.

Correction

A story in the April 20 issue inferred Brian Swinford is responsible to demolish both Bzzz bar and the former Chronicle office. Swinford is only responsible for the bar.

City officials are in the process of purchasing the Chronicle office and will seek bids to demolish it, said Mayor Jeff Wise.

Just the Facts regrets the confusion.
