An antique Kenaga & Peterson square grand piano, donated to the Hoopeston Historical Society by the Vermilion County War Museum. The historical society is accepting donations for equipment needed to tune the piano.

Floral Hill Chapel open to public Monday, piano on display

In honor of Memorial Day, the Hoopeston Historical Society will open the Floral Hill Chapel from 9:30 to 11:30 Monday, May 29.

On display in the Chapel is the newly acquired antique Kenaga & Peterson square grand piano, donated to the Hoopeston Historical Society by the Vermilion County War Museum.

The Kenaga & Peterson factory built custom-made square grand pianos until the Civil War Era.

When the piano was professionally delivered, the Society learned that the piano will need special equipment to tune the piano. The Hoopeston Historical Society is currently accepting donations to tune the piano so it may be played at special events at the Chapel.

Donations will be accepted Monday at the Chapel or they can be sent to the Hoopeston Historical Society PO Box 65 Hoopeston IL 60942.
