Honoring, remembering

Hoopeston American Legion held Hoopeston's annual Memorial Day ceremony Monday at Floral Hill Cemetery. Right, Gene Hanson prepares to address those assembled for the service. Below, the color guard stands at attention as the honor guard performs the salute to those who died in service to America. In his remarks, Hanson thanked area residents for coming and prayed that God would "deepen our reverence for those who gave all," and thanked Him for his "guidance and love." He asked that citizens honor departed veterans not only on our soil but also "those who lay beyond the sea."
