Hoopeston United Methodist Church to host authentic meal fundraiser for Jesus in Ukraine

Hoopeston residents can get a sampling of Ukrainian food at a fundraising event next month.

The church will be the site of Taste of Ukraine from 5-7 p.m. Saturday, July 8 at Hoopeston United Methodist Church, 403 E. Main St.

The menu will feature borscht (vegetable soup), vare-nike (pierogi), sweets, and drinks for a freewill donation. Funds are being raised for Jesus in Ukraine, a nonprofit organization that helps assist war victims in Ukraine.

The organization was started by Olga York, a Ukrainian

-born American, and her husband, Dale, of Hoopeston. Together, the couple directs Jesus in Ukraine "a gateway between our brothers and sisters in Christ and The Church of Rozdestvo (Christ's Birth) in Sumy, Ukraine. This is our way of serving in the name of Christ," according to the organization's webpage.

The mission of Jesus in Ukraine is based on John 3:16. Because God "is not willing that any should perish" Christians are to take His loving message to everyone. We are being called to prayerfully seek to reach people of Ukraine through partnership with the Church of Rozdestvo in Sumy, as they minister to the children, youth, families, disabled, prisoners, outcast and lost people of Ukraine.

Along with war relief, the group ministers by funding summer camps for children, youth and families, a rehab center for drug and alcohol addiction, a puppet ministry, prayer meetings in the city square and a prison ministry.

To learn more or to donate, go to www.JesusinUkraine.com.
