Keep Believing In Yourself

You're having a tough day and you want to give up. Don't! There are better days ahead! Are you making the right decisions or should you take another route? How do you feel about what you did this week? Was it the right thing to do or was it what others wanted you to do? You had challenges you faced head on, some that you may be working on and some that you had to forget. We seem to get stuck on a challenge that we determine to be important and we must do, when it could and should have been forgotten so we can move on.

You are important! Remember, you have a good mind, lots of dreams, intelligence and ambition. You can do anything you put your heart, mind and soul into! Really, it's a winner, believing in yourself. Knowing there is no limit to what you can do!

Only you can make your life happen as you want it to be! It is all possible in your mind just as you put it together in your dreams! Don't throw away your dreams. You can and should make them happen! You have the power and believe me, nothing is beyond your reach!

I believe and even guarantee your peace of mind with faith, contentment, strength, and ability to find joy in all other things you did not see! The world's arms are wide open to you! Keep going for the best life you could ever have or dream of. Don't listen to negative people who are only concerned with themselves! You and you alone can make your very own world the greatest!

Remember, no one but you can make your life better. Believe me, it's really there! Follow your heart, then the choices you make will be the right ones. How you live your life is up to you! Don't count on Mom or Dad or friends to make your life what you want! No Siree, "If it's to be, it's up to me!" Make this life one that right for you. Promise yourself joy, love, happiness and understanding!

Understand that you are in charge of you. Understand that to be good, you must be good to others. Understand only you can really truly believe in you! Understand there is only one you and let it be the best you possible!! Understand, as always, you alone are in charge of your wonderful life!
