From the Blotter

Clarence Callahan IV, 23, of Hoopeston, was arrested after a traffic stop at 3:06 a.m. Wednesday in the 700 block of West Orange. Stopped for a traffic violation, he was found to have a suspended driver's license and registration suspended for no insurance. He was charged with those infractions, as well as operating an uninsured vehicle.

Callahan was taken to the police station to be processed and was released on three notices to appear in Vermilion County Traffic Court.

A pair of sunglasses was found at Mr. B's. They can be identified and claimed at the police station.

James McClure, 25, of Hoopeston, was arrested after police were called at 11:31 p.m. Friday to the 300 block of East Maple for a domestic dispute. After an investigation, McClure was charged with domestic battery. He was processed at the police station then taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville to await arraignment.

Jordan Houser, 31, of Hoopeston, was injured and arrested in an incident at 3:30 p.m. Saturday in the 700 block of East Main. Police said Houser, on a bicycle, failed to stop at the intersection at East Main and hit a 2006 Dodge, driven by Zackery Hunt, 24, of Hoopeston.

Houser was taken to Carle Hoopeston and when released, he was arrested on a Rutherford County, Tenn., warrant. He was processed at the police station, then taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville to await extradition.

Sports

Soccer

Hoopeston Area opened the 2023 soccer season with a 4-2 loss to St. Joseph-Ogden on August 25. The Cornjerkers got on the board eight minutes into the game, when Harrison Woods scored the first goal on a header from Talan Greedy-Nelson on a corner kick. Four minutes later SJO tied the game at 1 when Logan Mills found the back of the net thanks to a great pass from Alex Acosta.

When the teams came out after the half, Hoopeston scored again just seven minutes in, when Talan Greedy-Nelson scored from a big punt from goalie Owen Root to make the score 2-1. SJO scored the last three points of the game, thanks to Camden Getty scoring with the assist going to Logan Mills. Less than a minute from the prior goal, SJO made it 3-2 with an unassisted goal by Alex Costa. SJO finished scoring with just little over five minutes when Spencer Wilson scored unassisted.

Hoopeston Area traveled to Oakwood on August 29 to open up their VVC play against Oakwood/Salt Fork. The Cornjerkers got the scoring going when Talan Greedy-Nelson on corner kick to the goal box and Gavin Montez out jumped everyone to use his head to put the ball in the back of the net.

In the second half, Oakwood/Salt Fork tied things up when Jacob Pricer scored on an assist from Macen Phillips to tie the game at one.

The Cornjerkers didn't stop fighting and little more than half way in the second half, Keygan Field was
