Officials donate $5,000 to Grant Township Food Cupboard

Submitted by MEGAN DECK
Grant Township Supervisor

Grant Township recently donated $5,000 to help support the Grant Township Food Cupboard. Since 1986, Grant Township Food Cupboard has proudly served the residents in the Hoopeston area.

Dolores Crabtree has been the driving force of the food cupboard for most of that entire time. She works endlessly to assure the food cupboard is cleaned, stocked, up to code and functioning as it should so she can serve the clients. She has an amazing team of volunteers who help her distribute food weekly and volunteers to help unload the monthly delivery truck when it arrives early in the morning.

Patti Maul has become Dolores' right hand man over the past few years and is a vital part of the food cupboard. She handles the technical aspects, as well as assisting with daily operations.

Without Dolores and all her volunteers, the food cupboard would not be able to operate. (I would list all of the volunteers, but would feel terrible if I overlooked anyone.)

Clients of Grant Township Food Cupboard can use the cupboard once every month. At that time, they are asked to provide proof of residency and to confirm that they are eligible for service based on state income guidelines. Clients receive about a weeks worth of groceries when they come and the variety of food that is available varies from month to month. Food is distributed Monday and Thursday 12:30-2 p.m. The food cupboard is housed within the Grant Township building, 525 S Market St. Hoopeston.

Grant Township Food Cupboard is a nonprofit agency that relies on donations from the community to support their clients. Monetary donations as well as food, personal hygiene, cleaning supplies, etc., can be dropped off or mailed to the address above. Checks should be made out to Grant Township Food Cupboard. All donations are tax deductible.

The Food Cupboard can be reached at 217-283-0780.
