New Rossville venue to be showcased at Saturday brunch

ROSSVILLE—A Milford woman was honored with an Old Town Preservation Legacy Award for her work in preserving buildings in downtown Rossville.

Colleen Caldwell received the award for her work on 115 S. Chicago St, now home to Hometown Homespun, a new gift shop.

On Saturday, the public will get a chance to see another of Caldwell's renovations, this one, at 111 S. Chicago, a project with her daughter, Baylee Estes.

"Brunch at Bae's" will be held from 11:30 a.m.-2:30 p.m. at Bae's Event Rental and Golf Simulation at 111 S. Chicago.

Drinks will be available at the bar and brunch will be available for purchase from 11 Bravo Coffee House's food truck. Selections will include "Try Me Bae-otch," named after the venue and featuring a selection of artisan meats, cheeses and more, with Sugar Creek Trading Co biscuit slices. Other offerings include seasonal fruits layered in vanilla yogurt with a local honey drizzle and granola topper, and a various assortment of pastries.

Live music will be provided by Taylor Rogers Music.

This is the second event venue renovation for the mother-daughter duo. The first was Town & Country Events in Milford.

Along with 115 and 111, Caldwell also purchased 109 and 113 S. Chicago, all of which harken back to the late 19th century.

Caldwell's award was one of two presented this year by Spring Anne Minier, Old Town Preservation Association publicity chairwoman. The second was to Jeremy Boggess and Kristi Church, of Danville, who were honored for transitioning their yard into an English garden.

Old Town was formed in June 1989 to foster and encourage the preservation and conservation of the natural and built environment of Danville and the surrounding areas.

Last year, James and Lisa Thomas were awarded with their efforts at the former Main Street Parlor candy store at 218 E. Main. In 2022, the board of the Lorraine Theatre was honored for not only preserving the historic theater but also its long history of providing entertainment to the community and surrounding area.

18. Please spread the word and join us for a meeting to offer support to past and present breast cancer survivors.
