From the Blotter

A 14-year-old Hoopeston girl was arrested on a complaint from a 25-year-old Hoopeston woman. Police were called at 8:15 p.m. Tuesday to Second Ave. and West Maple for a civic disturbance.

The girl was cited for disorderly conduct and released on a notice to appear in Hoopeston City Court.

Paul Dailing, 24, of Hoopeston, was arrested after police were sent to a residence in the 500 block of East Main St., where he was located. After an investigation, he was taken into custody on a preliminary charge of domestic battery.

He was processed at the police station, then taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville to await arraignment.

Terrence L. Poke, 30, of Hoopeston, was cited for driving while license suspended after a traffic stop at 5:34 p.m. Thursday. Police said Poke was stopped at south fourth St. and East Orange and was released from the scene on a notice to appear in Vermilion County Traffic Court.

Garrett White, 22, of Hoopeston, was arrested at 12:20 p.m. Friday in the 200 block of East Main. Police said a 47-year-old Hoopeston woman reported a suspicious person who tried to solicit her for a sex act.

White was processed at the police station, then taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville to await arraignment.
