It's a beautiful day in our neighborhood

The flowers are blooming all over the place, grass is growing like wildfire and warmth of the sun fills my heart.

Of course, May is for Mothers and Memorial Day! A time for all of us to remember all the men and women who gave their lives for us. Take time to attend the Memorial Day service and say "Thank You!"

As a Mother who had a son serving in Iraq and who came home, I cannot imagine the pain of losing a child. My neighborhood as a Mother is beautiful. I'm blessed with children I had and children I "sorta adopted", or who adopted me. Our lives, our children's, yours and mine make up this neighborhood. It's not just sidewalks, houses, cars, shops, gardens, parents, children, grandparents, soldiers, smiles and laughter. It is really caring for each other that makes a neighborhood beautiful.

In a book I received for Mother's Day, it indicates that Mothers would make good lawyers. In one month, they hear every possible argument, try case after case of wrong-doing and negotiate more plea bargains than most lawyers do in a lifetime. How true.

The bond between a Mother and child is indescribable, indestructible and irreversible. Sometimes you get so upset and mad that as a Mother you think of skipping town. Mistakes happen, people change and things do not turn out the way you want it. Well, we can't give them back and most of the time we wouldn't do that. Yes, a Mother's, Grandmother's or Aunt's bond is of the strongest kind, never broken, even in death.

Each of us have someone we call Mom. Is she perfect? Maybe to you. Did you learn how to be a Mother from her? Sure. A lot of Moms no longer here and Moms who are still in our life have made life beautiful in the neighborhood.

Enjoy the summer in your beautiful neighborhood!
