Lour dine Florek, Owner

From the Blotter

An Igloo lunch bag was found lying in the street after North Market and East Seminary. The owner may identify and claim it at the police station.

No tickets or injuries were reported in an accident at 1:09 p.m. Thursday at East Thompson and North Market.

Police said Cody A. Eells, 28, of Rossville, in a 1993 Mack tractor, was westbound, stopped at the intersection to turn northbound, cut the turn short. The tractor hit an Ameren pole, snapping it about eight feet from the ground.

An Ameren crew responded and replaced the pole.

Nicholas Coleman, 30 of Hoopeston, was arrested after police were called at 3:43 p.m. Saturday for a domestic situation in the 500 block of East Honeywell. He was charged with domestic battery and taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville to await arraignment.

Fire Calls

Hoopeston Fire Department was called at 11:56 p.m. Wednesday to Parkview Court for the smell of natural gas in one of the apartments. No injuries were reported.

The department was called at 8:31 a.m. Thursday to the 300 block of North Market to check for carbon monoxide after children in the home complained of bad headaches. The resident had a new detector that did not activate. No issues were found in the home.
