Circus coming to Hoopeston

Thanks to the sponsorship of Hoopeston Chamber of Commerce, Culpepper & Merriweather Circus is coming to Hoopeston Monday in the McFerren Park Annex on West Penn.

Two performances are scheduled, at 2 and 4:30 p.m. The Midway box office will open at 1 p.m.

Between 9:30 and 10 a.m., come watch the raising of the See CIRCUS on other side

City pool opening delayed due to filtration, structure issues

The traditional Memorial Day opening of Hoopeston's pool at McFerren Park is being delayed.

Ald. Alex Houmes, parks committee chairman, announced Tuesday that opening will be delayed due to a filtration system failure and a structural concern on the north side of the pool.

Once a cost estimate and timeline for repairs is determined, the committee will review and announce further details, he said.

Down and out

The first of three houses scheduled to be torn down under a Vermilion County Land Bank program was razed Monday. The house, at 409 N. Ninth Ave. A second house, at 418 N. Ninth Ave., was expected to be taken down Tuesday after asbestos siding was removed Monday. A third house at 413 E. Thompson is also set to be torn down. The land bank received a grant to have the demolition work done.

Big Top, then stay for the free tour. This presentation offers an opportunity for families, schools, and interested residents to meet and learn about the Culpepper & Merriweather Circus family on a walking tour of the circus grounds. Learn interesting facts about our performers, the history of the show and the different animals. In this presentation we will also address topics such as hygiene, grooming and the veterinary care our animals receive.

On circus day, our performers bring the magic of the circus to life in each 90-minute performance. This year's lineup includes an all-star group of performers and enter-
