From the Blotter

Zachary Garman, 26, of Hoopeston, was arrested after a traffic stop at 1:18 a.m. Sunday at Maple and Market. He was charged with driving while license revoked and was released on a notice to appear in Vermilion County traffic court.

A 28-year-old Milford woman reported at 6:48 p.m. Sunday that someone broke into and took items from her vehicle while it was parked at Heritage Health, 423 N. Dixie Hwy.

Chase Hensley, 22, of Hoopeston, was arrested after a traffic stop at 1:29 a.m. Monday at North Dixie Hwy. and Honeywell. A passenger in the vehicle stopped, Hensley was found to be wanted on a Vermilion County warrant for failure to appear. He was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville in lieu of bond.

Crystal G. Robinson, 39, of Hoopeston, was ticketed after Hoopeston Animal Control was called at 7 p.m. Monday to West Lincoln and South Sixth Ave. area for a dog running at large.

Robinson was cited for restraint of dog by owner and released on a notice to appear in Hoopeston City Court.

A 38-year-old Hoopeston woman reported Sunday that while she was at a graduation party in the 300 block of West Penn, her cell phone was missing. Police are investigating.

Gage Clayburn, 23, of Hoopeston, was arrested after a traffic stop at 10:52 p.m. Sunday in the 400 block of South Second Ave. He was charged with driving while license suspended and, after being searched, also charged with possession of a controlled substance.

Clayburn was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville to await arraignment.

Briefly

Flags being placed

Flags for Memorial Day will be placed on the highway beginning at 4 p.m. Wednesday, weather permitting. All help is appreciated. Volunteers will meet at CVS. Rain date is Thursday or as soon as possible after that.

Businesses are asked to have their lawns mowed so flags won't have to be removed.

Flags will be picked up beginning at 4 p.m. May 30.

Auxiliary meeting canceled

Hoopeston American Legion Auxiliary will not meet May 23. The next meeting will be June 27. Enjoy your Memorial Day weekend and remember servicemen and women, past and present.

At the library

Upcoming events at Hoopeston Public Library include:
Cooking the Books, 6-7 p.m. Thursday. This month's theme is Mexican food. Choose a recipe from our special collection. Staff will copy the recipe for you to take home, make and bring to share at the library Thursday.

Pool to hold free swim, savings

Hoopeston Swimming Pool will hold a free swim on Monday, Memorial Day. Those who purchase season passes on that day will receive 15% off the regular price. A one-person pass, reg. $90, will be $76.50. A two-person pass will be $102; three-person $127.50; four-person $153 and five-person $178.50.

For each additional person over five, add $30.

Memorial Day closings

Hoopeston City Hall will be closed Monday for the holiday. Hoopeston Police Department will be open.

Hoopeston Public Library will be closed Monday and reopen Tuesday with regular hours.

Just the Facts will not be printed Monday due to Memorial Day. Publication will resume Tuesday.

Faces of graduation

Mary Gilonske, left, gets emotional as her grandson, Gage Rian Cloud, makes his way to the stage at Sunday's commencement exercise for Hoopeston Area High School's 2018 graduates. Cloud plans to attend Olivet University and become a minister, she said. Right, Reice Faye Clingenpeel waits for her turn to walk. Besides finishing up high school studies, Clingenpeel has also been studying to be a nurse's aide. She plans a career in medicine as an emergency room physician. Below, HAHS science teacher Adam Elliott mugs for the camera while fellow teacher Ashley Gondzur and soon-to-be graduates look on.
