Alec Mockbee, 22, of Danville, was arrested at 1:40 a.m. Monday in the 300 block of West Chestnut. Police said Mockbee, wanted on a warrant, hid from officers and, when found, gave false information. He was charged with obstructing identification and was released with a new date in Vermilion County Court.

Brian Kinnaird, 29, of Hoopeston, was arrested at 4:11 a.m. Monday, charged for an incident reported at 5:56 p.m. Sunday. Police were called to the 200 block of East Penn, where a 21-year-old Hoopeston woman reported a domestic issue. Kinnaird had left the area before officers arrived.

He was later located, charged with domestic battery and unlawful restraint and taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville to await arraignment.

The census deadline has been extended to October 31

Without an accurate count of residents, Hoopeston will lose thousands of dollars in federal money that is returned to communities based on population. It’s YOUR money - bring it back to YOUR community! YOU COUNT!

Robinson Chiropractic presents a check for $14,120 to representatives of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes recently. The sum was raised from new patient fees from all office locations during June, July and August. The money will allow them to fund camps and hire another staff member. Help Yourself to Happiness

Just think how awesome it is to be happy. How is that possible in our upside-down world? A world where every day is different, not always bad, just never knowing what lies ahead. Like today. I planned on a sunny sit and read kind of day. You guessed it! No sun. No sitting outside, no reading, no happiness! What do we do when happiness seems to slip away? Perhaps at a job or in a marriage, maybe a friendship you treasured. Seem we all think we deserve happiness. We want it! We need it! At least that’s how most of us feel. We want good fortune, blessings, and joy. All the happiness we can get. Why? Well, because we are good people and it is our right and privilege to be happy! Because we claim a right to happiness. We demand feeling good. For sure it makes for a much nicer day. A cheerful look on your face gives joy to you and all those around you. I think joy and happiness are related. We see others happy and living it up. I think some folks have a happiness license.
