Of the remaining total positive cases, 551 are released/recovered and four people have died.

Vermilion County has had 26,524 negative tests. Those in their 20s continue to be the largest group of positive results, with 133, followed by 93 in the 30-39 range, 84 in the 50-59 group, 79 in the 40-49 bracket and 70 in their 60s. Ages 0-9 make up 44 cases, followed by 66 in the 10-19 span. There have been 58 positive cases among people aged 70-79 and 28 among those in their 80s.

Women continue to outnumber men in positive cases, 51 percent to 49 percent. Eighty percent of those who have tested positive are white, 12 percent are black and five percent Hispanic.

In local numbers, the 60942 zip code, which includes Hoopeston and Cheneyville, has seen an uptick in total positive cases, now at 37. Rossville has had 13, Potomac, 18 and Alvin, six. In Iroquois County, Milford has had 13 positive cases and Cissna Park, 18.

Mobile testing to be in Hoopeston, Covid-19 numbers increase

Hoopeston area residents may take advantage of drive-by/walk-up COVID-19 mobile testing Saturday.

A mobile testing team is scheduled to be available from 9 a.m.-4 p.m. Saturday in the Hoopeston Area High School parking lot, 615 E. Orange.

Testing is open to adults and children, Illinois or Indiana residents, with or without symptoms. Insurance information will be collected for billing, but there is no cost for testing. Insurance is not required for testing. Results will be available in 4-7 days.

Vermilion County now stands at 655 positive cases since the novel coronavirus was identified earlier this year.

Public Health Administrator Doug Toole announced 17 new cases Monday, including two residents in the age groups of 70s, 60s, 40s, grade-schoolers and preschoolers, along with four in their 30s and one each in the 50s, 20s and teens. Four of the new cases are family-related.

There are currently 100 active cases, with 90 at home in isolation and 10 hospitalized.

Of the remaining total positive cases, 551 are released/recovered and four people have died.
